Extension 1- Reader Response

Materials:

Paper

Pencil

Crayons, Markers, Color Pencils or Paint

Props for acting out

OR NOTHING--You can act it out or talk about it without any materials.

Learning Targets:

I can write about my connection to the story.

I can write to tell my thoughts about the story.

★To start:

Reading Response Task Card

We just finished reading the book, "All Are Welcome"
It's time for you to respond to what you have read.

You have two choices to respond to:

1. What does it mean to feel welcome? How did the book show that all were welcome at the school?
2. What are some ways you can welcome students to your classroom, school, and community?
3. What is one thing you can do every day to be welcoming?
4. Have you ever felt like you weren't included in something? How did that make you feel?
5. Tell about a time when you saw someone being welcoming to someone else.

TALKING

WRITING

DRAWING OR PAINTING

ACTING IT OUT OR PLAYING

OR Share your response by combining any of the ways above.

I can't wait to see how you respond.
Give your response on paper before you talk, draw, or act it out.
I want to see both!

Extension 2 -Me + My Friends

Materials:

Pencils

Paper

Learning Targets:

I can identify ways that my friends and I are the same, no matter how unique we are.

★To start:

1. Draw the chart below on your own sheet of paper or print this chart out.

- Fill in the blanks to show how you are like your friends.
- You could do this with a friend or you could do it about one of your friends without them being with you.

	Me	HOW WE ARE THE SAME	My Friend
Example (favorite color)	I like the colors red and yellow.	We both have colors that we like.	I like the color blue.
